HOLIDAY FUN

Our annual holiday potluck was a great success, with over 20 attending. The food was fabulous, and the white elephant was polite for the first 10 rounds, with no one stealing, and then it went crazy. Clyde Stout definitely earned the “most gifts stolen” award. The hit of the party was Wendell modeling his gift of Candy Yu earrings.

Artist of the Year was awarded to Candy Yu. Participation was awarded to Jeanne Wardrip. Congratulations to both!

Happy New Year!!!!

The first challenge of 2019 is TURQUOISE!!! Please bring your finished pieces to the next meeting - Jan 17. Don't forget we have new locking cabinets for ALL your creative 3D pieces too! Looking forward to seeing them all.

Dues are Due!

Your 2019 dues are now due.
$35 for individuals
$40 for families
$5 late fee after March 1st

Dues can be paid during the break at the meetings or mailed to:
Margie Mathews, Treasurer
1920 Noble Avenue
San Jose, CA 95132

Minutes for the month of December

Leadership Committee meeting:

- Current club balance is $1,689.00.
- Voted to supply potluck main dish from club budget.
- Confirmed Jeanne Waldrip as at-large board member.
- Voted to have club supply meeting snacks instead of having individuals supply.
- Reviewed survey results, more than half the club responded. Will present synopsis at the January monthly meeting.
- Judi Sherwood reported on meeting with FPC preschool teachers. Voted to include preschool in quarterly challenges and investigate ways to include them in annual show.
- Studio Saturday received the most mixed results in survey, need to find volunteer to spearhead reviving this program.
- Voted to move January board meeting to the 10th.
