EVA MINUTES MAY 15, 2014

7:10 ...Meeting called to order by president Christine.

Mary Mints passed away May 12. Her obit is at the end of this newsletter.

Wendell talked about the June 28 Triton show. June 1 is the deadline to let him know if you are interested.

Although no upfront cost for the Triton, a $5 donation for our club is expected on that day to help cover our expenses.

Reminder...30% goes to the Triton Museum. Adjust prices accordingly.

The Annual Show in August was also discussed and there are still open slots for members to fill

There may not be a raffle this year depending on how much volunteer help we get.

There will not be children's participation.

New member, HongWang was voted in as an "exhibiting" member, and George Ricci and Shesh Pai joined the club.

Our demonstrator was Ann Mc Millan. She gave details on how she paints from life as she painted a larger version of a small painting of a vineyard. Her points were ...In the Beginning...Think a lot; In the Middle...Feel a lot. Best advice given...paint like a millionaire. Use only quality equipment and paint.

JUNE MEETING: SANDRA JONES CRITIQUE

Remember to bring paintings you want help finishing. This is your annual opportunity to get professional help prior to the Annual Show.

Sandra has won numerous distinguished awards for her paintings in pastel, charcoal, oil, acrylic and mixed media, as well as airbrush. In 2007, her celebrated pastel piece entitled "Lost in Thought" was purchased by the Triton Museum of Art (Santa Clara, CA) for its permanent collection – a rare and prestigious honor for an emerging artist. Her works can be found in art collections across the country and in Europe. She has demonstrated for us many times and juried shows. She is an excellent teacher.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

FOR MUM

I hope everyone is vine and had a wonderful Mother's Day. My kids rose to the occasion and are always so thoughtful to me and my daisy was great! Something you may not know about me is that I like to use puns, a lot! To the point that my kids are rolling their irises at me when I do. (However, once in a while it does sprout a laugh.) In honor of my mother we always have a pound of Sees Candy (her favorite food). In honor of me this year, my kids got me a large card full of bloomin' puns and they even wrote some of their own. It was ama-zinnia!

Your president, Christine Harkins
