

Glenna has been working with art for more than 20 years now. She started in San Jose, doing stained glass. She moved her studio to Maui, and spent more than 15 years studying the ocean, and every sunset. She now draws inspiration from that, and creates in multiple media including silversmithing, fused glass, stained glass, mosaic and paint. Adventures in glass art, <http://www.facebook.com/granddesignssjc>